JMUIM Halal Pak(JMUIM) aims to ensure fair and consistent treatment of certified individuals or entities and to maintain the integrity and reputation of the certification program. The policy defines the grounds for each type of action, including suspension, withdrawal, and reduction of certification notification, response, review, and communication.

JMUIM Halal Pak has right to suspend, withdraw & reduce the scope of issued certificate on the basis of received information and its own findings, which aren't in compliance with the standard requirements and certification rules. The policy emphasizes the importance of upholding ethical standards and compliance with certification requirements while providing a transparent and accountable process for all parties involved.

If JMUIM opt for suspension, withdrawal & reduction it will send a written notice about occurred situation to the client and provide him with the specific period to implement correction (no more than 6 months).
